There are two Freiburgs in Germany; “ours” is Freiburg im Breisgau. It is the unofficial “capital of the Black Forest”.

It is a beautiful city, surrounded by beautiful countryside. Come early; stay late. Great hiking is available right in the city, as well as—naturally—in the surrounding hills. Swimming in lakes and pools is available right in town, and not far from the workshop location.

The workshop takes place directly in the city center (the “Stadtmitte”). More specifically, in the old city (the “Altstadt”).

Accommodations and many restaurants are in the immediate area.

Arrival in town by train:

Your destination is “Freiburg Hauptbahnhof” (main station). It is a short walk to the workshop location, and to some of the overnight accommodations.

Streetcars and taxis are, of course, available.

Train info is here: <https://www.bahn.com/i/view/index.shtml>
